

Lesson: 43

Fruit of the Spirit

Volume: 5

16. In our Christian growth and experience, what is to accompany faith, courage, and knowledge?

"Add to your faith virtue [courage]; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge _____." 2 Peter 1:6

NOTE: One of the briefest and best definitions of temperance is self-control. The word in the text means much more than mere abstinence from intoxicating drinks,-the limited sense now frequently given to it. It means control, strength, power, or ascendancy over exciting and evil passions of all kinds. It denotes the self-rule which the over-comer or converted man has over the evil propensities of his nature. Commenting on this passage, Dr. Albert Barnes says: "The influences of the Holy Spirit on the heart make a man moderate in all indulgences; teach him to restrain his passions, and to govern himself."

17. How highly is he commended who controls his spirit?

"He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that _____ his _____ than he that _____ a _____." Proverbs 16:32

18. What is said of all these different virtues?

"Against such there is _____ law." Galatians 5:23, last clause

NOTE: The law condemns sin. But all these things, being virtues, are in harmony with the law. They are produced by the Spirit; and the law, which is spiritual, cannot, therefore, condemn them.

19. From what condemnation does Spirit- leading save us?

"But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are _____ under the _____." Galatians 5:18

20. To what unity are Christians exhorted?

"Endeavoring to keep the _____ of the _____ in the bond of peace."

Ephesians 4:3

Spirit of life, and light, and love,
Thy heavenly influence give;
Quicken our souls, our guilt remove,
That we in Christ may live.

His love within us shed abroad,
Life's ever-springing well;
Till God in us, and we in God,
In love eternal dwell
