

10. Of what else does God say He gave the Sabbath to His people to be a sign, or reminder?

"Moreover also I gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between Me and them, that _____ might _____ that I am the Lord that _____ them." Ezekiel 20:12.

NOTE: Sanctification is a work of redemption, of making holy sinful or unholy beings. Like the work of creation itself, this requires creative power. See Psalms 51:10; John 3:3,6; Ephesians 2:10. And as the Sabbath is the appropriate sign or memorial of the creative power of God wherever displayed, whether in creation, deliverance from human bondage, or deliverance from the slavery of sin, it is to be kept as a sign of the work of sanctification. This will be one great reason for the saints' keeping it throughout eternity. It will remind them not only of their own creation and the creation of the universe, but also of their redemption.

11. Through whom do we have sanctification?

"But of Him are ye in _____ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and _____, and redemption." 1 Corinthians 1:30

NOTE: Then, as the Sabbath is a sign or memorial of sanctification, and as Christ is the one through whom the work of sanctification is accomplished, the Sabbath is a sign or memorial of what Christ is to the believer. Through the Sabbath, therefore, God designed that the believer and Christ should be very closely linked together.

12. What statement of the redeemed shows that they will remember God's creative power?

"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for Thou hast _____ all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created." Revelation 4:11

13. How often will they congregate to worship the Lord?

"For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before Me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one _____ to another, shall all flesh come to worship before Me, saith the Lord." Isaiah 66:22-23

NOTE: The Sabbath, which is the memorial of God's creative power, will never cease to exist. When this sinful state of things shall give way to the sinless new earth, the fact upon which the Sabbath institution is based will still remain; and those who shall be permitted to live in the new earth will still commemorate the creative power of God, while singing the song of Moses and the Lamb. Revelation 15:3. See Revelation 22:1-2

1. What is to endure throughout all generations?

"Thy name, O Lord, endureth forever; and Thy _____, O Lord, throughout all generations." Psalms 135:13

Memorial: "Anything intended to preserve the memory of a person or event; something which serves to keep some person or thing in remembrance, as a monument or a practise."- Webster

2. What illustration of this is given in the Bible?

"And these _____ shall be for a _____ unto the children of Israel forever." Joshua 4:7

3. What are these stones to commemorate?

"And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones? then ye shall let your children _____, saying, _____ came over this _____ on _____ land." Joshua 4:21-22

NOTE: These stones were to be a standing memorial, or reminder, of Israel's coming dry-shod over the Jordan.

4. What was another memorial instituted to commemorate another signal providence in behalf of the Israelites?

"And this _____ shall be unto you for a _____; and ye shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever." Exodus 12:14

NOTE: This, the Passover, was a periodical memorial, to be observed on the fourteenth day of the first month of each year, the day on which the Israelites were delivered from Egyptian bondage, and its celebration was to be, with the seven days' feast of unleavened bread following and connected with it, in commemoration of that event. See Exodus 13:3-9

5. Does God design that His great work of creating the heavens and the earth shall be remembered?

"The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. His work is honorable and glorious: and His righteousness endureth forever. He hath made His wonderful _____ to be _____." Psalms 111:2-4

6. What has He commanded men to observe in memory of this great work?

"_____ the _____ day, to keep it _____; . . . for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it." Exodus 20:8-11

7. Of what was this memorial to be a sign?

"And hallow My Sabbaths; and they shall be a _____ between Me and you, that ye may _____ that I am the _____ your _____." Ezekiel 20:20

8. How long was the Sabbath to be a sign of the true God?

"It is a _____ between Me and the children of Israel _____: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed." Exodus 31:17

NOTE: It is manifest that if the object of the Sabbath was to keep God as the Creator in mind, and it had been faithfully kept from the first, there would not now be a heathen or an idolater on the face of the earth.

9. What besides creation were Israel to remember when they kept the Sabbath?

"And _____ that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy _____ brought thee out thence through a _____ hand and by a stretched-out arm: therefore the Lord thy God commanded thee to keep the Sabbath day." Deuteronomy 5:15

NOTE: There is a deep significance to this scripture not apparent to those unacquainted with the facts. In Egypt, through oppression and idolatrous surroundings, the keeping of the Sabbath had become not only almost obsolete, but well-nigh impossible. Their deliverance from bondage was in order that they might keep God's law (Palms. 105:43-45), and particularly the Sabbath, the great seal, sign, and memorial-institution of the law. The recollection of their bondage and oppressed condition in Egypt was to be an additional incentive for keeping the Sabbath in the land of freedom. The Sabbath, therefore, besides being a memorial of creation, was to be to them a memorial of their deliverance from bondage, and of the great power of God as manifested in this deliverance. And as Egypt stands as a symbol of the condition of everyone in the world under the slavery of sin, so the Sabbath is to be kept by every saved soul as a memorial of the deliverance from this slavery by the mighty power of God through Christ.
